Musicorp Employees Donate to Local School

Charleston, SC, August 23, 2010– Musicorp, a leading distributor and manufacturer of musical instruments, lighting products and accessories, is proud to announce the donation of school supplies by Musicorp employees to a local Charleston, South Carolina primary school.

In August, Musicorp employees individually purchased various school supplies for Matilda F. Dunston Primary School, located one mile from Musicorp Headquarters. Musicorp employees had been informed that the school was not legally allowed to require kids to come to school with their own supplies and asked the school to provide Musicorp with a list of supplies needed. They were very grateful when Musicorp employees, Kathy Weatherford and Paul Reetz, delivered the much needed school supplies on August 17th, 2010. Musicorp employees provided a great relief to the school.

“We are proud of Musicorp employees’ generosity and willingness to donate and support local schools,” stated Catherine Polk, Musicorp Director of Marketing.
